INTRODUCTION

Revenue of State governments from all sources totaled $154.6 billion in fiscal 1975,[1] or 9.8 percent more than in fiscal 1974. State government expenditure increased 18.2 percent and amounted to $156.2 billion in fiscal 1975. The 1975 fiscal year covered a period of inflation and recession, which had an impact of varying scope on the finances of individual States.

Total revenue includes gross sales revenue of liquor stores operated by 17 States, and contributions and investment earnings received by employee-retirement, unemployment compensation, and other insurance trust systems of State governments. Correspondingly, total expenditure includes gross amounts of purchases and other expenditures by State liquor stores, and payments of benefits and withdrawals by the State insurance trust systems.

Considering separately the amounts that pertain to liquor stores, insurance trust systems, and the predominant remaining "general government" sector, it appears that during the fiscal year 1975–

General government expenditure exceeded general revenue by $3.7 billion or 2.7 percent;

Insurance trust revenue exceeded insurance trust expenditure by $1.7 billion, or 10.8 percent; and

Liquor store revenue exceeded liquor store expenditure by $410 million, or 23.9 percent.

State borrowing amounted to $9.7 billion during fiscal 1975 and debt redemption totaled $2.9 billion. State debt rose to a new high of $72.1 billion at the end of the fiscal year, as compared with $65.3 billion in 1974. Short-term debt increased significantly from $3.6 billion to $4.6 billion or 27.2 percent.

The data on cash and security holdings indicate an increase of $6.4 billion in assets from the prior year. Holdings of employee-retirement systems rose $8.5 billion. Unemployment compensation funds showed a ten year low of $6.9 billion, a 36.2 percent drop from the previous year.

National totals of State finances for 1975 are presented in tables 1 and 2. Table 1 includes per capita data and other derived statistics, as well as nationwide totals for the fiscal years 1973 and 1974. Table 2 provides fiscal 1975 totals in terms of a cross-classification of amounts for various functions by character and object categories.

Summary aggregates of income and outgo in fiscal 1975 are shown for individual States in table 3. Per capita figures, statistics on percent change in selected data items, and data on the relation of selected financial items to personal income, by States, appear in tables 4,5, and 6, respectively.

GENERAL REVENUE

State general revenue totaled $134.6 billion in fiscal 1975, up 10.0 percent from the 1974 amount.

Taxes provided $80.2 billion, or 59.5 percent of the 1975 total of State general revenue. Charges and miscellaneous general revenue increased 11.2 percent to $16.6 billion.

Intergovernmental revenue totaled $37.8 billion, or 14.0 percent more than the 1974 amount of $33.2 billion. The 1975 figures include $2.1 billion in State receipts from the Federal General Revenue Sharing program. They also reflect elimination on January 1, 1974 of Federal welfare revenue for aged, blind, and disabled persons.

State tax revenue was up 8.0 percent in 1975 from the 1974 total. General sales and gross receipts taxes provided $24.8 billion. The next ranking sales tax was the tax on motor fuel, which produced $8.3 billion. Tobacco sales tax collections were $3.3 billion in fiscal 1975. Sales taxes on alcoholic beverages totaled $2.0 billion. Altogether, general and selective sales and gross receipts taxes were up $2.8 billion to $43.3 billion, or more than one-half of the total collected from all State tax sources.

Motor vehicle license taxes produced $3.7 billion in 1975. This category includes truck mileage and weight taxes, and other motor carrier taxes except those measured by gross receipts, net income, or assessed valuation.

The yield from individual income taxes (imposed by 44 States) totaled $18.8 billion, up 10.2 percent from the 1974 figure. Corporation net income taxes amounted to $6.6 billion in 1975, or 10.4 percent more than in the previous year.

Most States had an increase in general revenue between 1974 and 1975, as shown in table 5. Detail of general revenue for each State appears in table 7.

There were 12 State lotteries in operation during fiscal year 1975 providing relatively small amounts of revenue as indicated by the following figures (in millions of dollars):

[1]Fiscal 1975 data herein are for the State fiscal years ended on June 30, 1975, except for 3 States with other closing dates: Alabama, September 30; New York, March 31; and Texas, August 31.

Connecticut, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania lotteries reported lower receipts than in the previous fiscal year.

The State of Delaware began operation of its lottery in November 1975 after a brief period of operation earlier in the year. The State of New York ceased operation of its lottery in October 1975 and plans to begin again in September 1976.

GENERAL EXPENDITURE

State general expenditure amounted to $138.3 billion in fiscal 1975, or 15.4 percent more than in 1974.

Of the 1975 total, education accounted for a larger fraction of State spending than any other function. In 1975, the States spent $54.0 billion for education, or 15.3 percent more than in 1974. Federal aid for State and local education programs, including Federal grants channeled through the States to local public schools, shared in financing this increase.

State fiscal aid to local governments for support of public schools amounted to $31.1 billion in 1975, as compared with $27.1 billion in 1974. Expenditure for State institutions of higher education totaled $17.7 billion in 1975. This amount includes $2.0 billion for operation of auxiliary enterprises, such as dormitories and dining halls. State revenue from charges of these activities amounted to $2.3 billion. Amounts for education do not include expenditure for university-operated hospitals serving the public (classified under hospitals) or for agricultural experiment stations and extension services (classified under natural resources).

Expenditure for public welfare totaled $25.6 billion, an increase of $3.0 billion from 1974. This was largely accounted for by a 26.6 percent increase of medical vendor payments, from $7.4 billion in fiscal 1973-74 to $9.4 billion in 1974-75. The administration of categorical welfare aid was changed in January 1974 when the Federal Government assumed direct payment to aged, blind, and disabled recipients.

Some States supplement the Federal minimum grants with intergovernmental payments to the Federal Government or give supplemental checks directly to persons qualifying for these aid programs. State transfers to local governments for welfare services total $8.1 billion. However, wide variation exists among the States as to which unit of government provides particular welfare services.

State expenditure for highways in 1975 amounted to $17.5 billion, or 10.3 percent more than in the previous year. About $3.2 billion was paid to local governments for highway purposes. Of the other $14.3 billion, $13.6 billion was for regular State highway facilities and the remainder was for toll roads and bridges (generally administered by semiautonomous agencies of the State governments).

Most direct expenditure by the States for highways consists of capital outlay—mainly construction but also involving the purchase of land and equipment. Capital expenditure for regular highway facilities increased $1.2 billion from the previous year to $10.2 billion in fiscal 1975. Capital outlay for State toll highway facilities amounted to $355 million. Current spending for the operation of State toll facilities amounted to $320 million in 1975. Revenue from toll charges produced $907 million.

Spending for hospitals, the fourth major State function, rose 14.3 percent to total $7.1 billion in 1975.

Some increases occurred from 1974 to 1975 in State spending for almost all general government functions, as shown in tables 1 and 5. Detailed figures on expenditure for each State appear in tables 8-11.

The comprehensive data on State general expenditure which are presented in this report include not only current operation spending but also any applicable amounts for assistance and subsidies, capital outlay, and intergovernmental expenditure. It should be noted that these figures include payments for general-government purposes from all sources and funds, including any amounts spent from borrowing and from previous period balances, as well as from current revenues. However, expenditures for specific functions do not include any amounts for debt service costs. Interest payments on debt are not classified under particular functions for which debt may have been incurred, but rather are shown in the single "Interest" category.

EXPENDITURE BY CHARACTER AND OBJECT

The foregoing discussion has dealt with expenditure mainly in terms of purposes and functions served. This report also provides distributions of State expenditure (including amounts for liquor stores and insurances trust purposes as well as general government purposes) in terms of the kinds of spending involved—current operations, capital outlay, intergovernmental payments, assistance and subsidies, interest, etc.

Total State spending for personal services was $29.8 billion, or about one-fifth of all State expenditure in 1975. Personal service costs are mainly for "current operation," but include also some amounts for force-account construction.

Following is a summary of State expenditure by character and object:

Item	1974-75 amount (millions of dollars)	Percent of total	Percent increase or decrease (-) from 1973-74

LIQUOR STORE FINANCES

Sales revenue of liquor stores which are operated by 17 State governments totaled $2.1 billion in 1975, and liquor stores expenditure amounted to $1.7 billion. Amounts reported for these categories do not include revenue from State taxes which are collected through liquor monopoly systems, nor distinguishable expenditure for licensing and law enforcement activities in connection with these systems. Such amounts are treated as general revenue and general expenditure, respectively.

INSURANCE TRUST FINANCES

Every State operates a system of unemployment insurance and one or more public-employee retirement systems. Most of the States also administer workmen's compensation systems, and a few have other social insurance systems involving the payment of cash benefits from accumulated fund reserves. Transactions of these various systems—exclusive of administrative cost (treated as general expenditure) and of State contributions (classified as intragovernmental transactions)—are reported as insurance trust revenue and insurance trust expenditure.

Revenue of the State unemployment compensation systems totaled $5.7 billion in fiscal 1975. Their benefit payments, totaling $9.5 billion, showed an increase of $4.9 million, or 104.0 percent, from 1974. Reserves of the State unemployment compensation systems totaled $6.9 billion at the end of 1975 compared to $10.8 billion a year earlier.

State-administered employee-retirement systems had revenue from contributions and investment earnings that totaled $10.2 billion in fiscal 1975, and made payments for benefits and withdrawals amounting to $5.2 billion. Lesser amounts were involved for workmen's compensation and scattered other insurance trust systems.

INDEBTEDNESS, BORROWING, AND DEBT REDEMPTION

Of the $72.1 billion of State debt outstanding at the end of fiscal 1975, all except $4.6 billion was of long-term nature. In addition to $33.7 billion of long-term obligations backed by the States' full faith and credit, $33.8 billion of nonguaranteed debt was outstanding.

Net long-term State debt—allowing for debt offsets of $9.2 billion—amounted to $58.4 billion at the end of the 1975 fiscal year.

CASH AND SECURITY HOLDINGS

The aggregate of all State cash and security holdings was 4.7 percent higher at the end of fiscal 1975 than a year earlier. Components making up the $140.8 billion total moved differently during the year, as indicated by the table below.

Some change also occurred in the composition of security holdings of the State governments. Nongovernmental securities increased from 80.7 percent to 81.7 percent of total security holdings.

Item	1974-75 amount (millions of dollars)	Percent of total	Percent increase or decrease (-) from 1973-74
Total cash and security holdings	140,847	100.0	4.7

INDIVIDUAL STATE COMPARISONS

There is a considerable range among the States in per capita financial amounts. This is illustrated in the following tabulation distributing the 50 State governments according to the magnitude of their per capita revenue, expenditure, and debt for fiscal 1975.

SOURCES AND LIMITATIONS OF DATA

Most of the data for this report was compiled by trained representatives of the Bureau of the Census from official records and reports of the various States. The figures were classified according to standard categories for reporting of State finances. Data in this report are subject to possible inaccuracies in classification, response and processing. Every effort is made to keep such errors to a minimum through care in examining, editing and tabulating the data submitted.

Some portions of the finance statistics being reported were gathered by mail canvassing of individual State institutions or offices. This procedure applied to State tax revenue (for which data on a preliminary basis appeared in the report State Tax Collections in 1975 issued in December 1975); to some debt figures; and to the statistics on finances of employee-retirement systems and miscellaneous other insurance trust systems. Data on the finances of unemployment compensation systems were obtained from the Employment and Training Administration of the U.S. Department of Labor; and figures on State revenue from Federal grants for hospital construction were obtained from the U.S. Public Health Service. Data concerning State institutions of higher education were provided by the Office of Education of the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

The kindness of State and Federal agencies in providing information needed for this report is gratefully acknowledged.

Reporting on governmental finances by the Bureau of the Census involves presentation of data in terms of uniform categories. Revenue items of the same kind are merged, for example, and expenditure amounts for similar purposes are combined also, regardless of the number of funds involved.

In most instances, the data presented in this report pertain to the respective States' fiscal years (which end June 30 in all except three instances, as indicated by footnote 1 on page 1). However, there are some State government agencies, including a number of toll highway authorities, which operate on a different fiscal year basis. In such instances, where data are not readily available for the basic State fiscal year, figures for these agencies are used which pertain to the agency fiscal year that ended within the period of the State's regular fiscal year.

The financial data in this publication are limited in their coverage to State governments, and provide no measure of local government finances as such, except indirectly through the reporting of State intergovernmental transactions. Financial statistics covering both State and local governments, including comparative data for key items on a State-by-State basis, will appear in the report, Governmental Finances in 1975 which is scheduled for publication in August 1976.

Caution must be used in attempting to draw conclusions from direct comparisons of financial amounts for individual State governments. Some State governments directly administer certain activities which elsewhere are undertaken by local governments, with or without State fiscal aid. The fraction which State government amounts make up of consolidated State-local totals, therefore, differs materially from one State area to another. Percentage figures illustrating this variation, in terms of 1974 tax revenue data, and also in terms of payroll data for the month of October 1974, are presented in table 21.
